

IMTAL-Europe AGM and a chance to see 'Pauly's War' Wednesday 6th October 2010

2010 IMTAL-Europe AGM will be hosted by the People's History Museum in central Manchester.

Newly reopened after a £12.5 million redevelopment, this is your chance to enjoy an informal tour and free performance of the museum's highly innovative "Pauly's War". The People's History Museum has been using theatre and live interpretation for more than fifteen years with performances on the galleries and in the newly-built theatre space.

Programme

10am Welcome and refreshments

10.30am Tour and introduction to the museum

11.30am AGM

12.15pm Lunch (This can be bought in the museum cafe or from shops nearby.)

1.30pm 'Pauly's War' (performance lasts approx. an hour, to be followed by an informal discussion).

3.00 pm Close

R.S.V.P. We'd love to have you with us but please let us know so that we can buy enough biscuits!

R.S.V.P. attendance to Lynne Ashton – email: ashtonlynne@me.com

For further information about the day please contact: board@imtal-europe.com

Would you like to be more involved with IMTAL-Europe? If you are interested in standing for the Board, check the details which will be on the website from Sept. 16th. www.imtal-europe.org

International Museum Theatre Alliance | Company number 3765707 | Charity number 1080494

www.imtal-europe.org